

DECLARATION OF AUTHENTICITY

Please read the following statement carefully. To insure a high-quality show, you must sign and return this statement with your application/contract to be considered.

- Dealer space is to be used exclusively for the sale of antique and/or approved collectible merchandise. There shall not be any merchandise sold in violation of federal, state or municipal laws or regulations.
- There shall not be any alcohol, firearms, pistols, rifles, shotguns, weapons or any merchandise containing hazardous substances, such as mercury or other toxic chemicals sold. Further, any antiques or collectibles that are deemed by the Historic Depot Antique Show and Sale committee to be inappropriate for display/sale because they are judged pornographic or are deemed to be ethnic offensive or are otherwise deemed offensive to the general public are not permitted. Collectible pocket knives will be permitted in display cases.
- Merchandise shall be available for the reasonable inspection by show committee. Any objectionable merchandise shall be promptly removed from the show by the dealer upon notice of show committee. If dealer does not promptly remove objectionable merchandise, a committee member may enter the booth space and remove the objectionable merchandise.
- The dealer shall refrain from using or occupying the booth space for any other purpose or purposes without written consent of the show committee.
- The term “antique” is defined herein as merchandise 50 years old or older and the term “approved collectible” is defined herein as an item of interest to the general public which has been approved for sale by show committee prior to set up.

I have read the above statement and agree to comply with this condition of show participation.
